

I'm Stef Manzini. Freelance journalist and author. I worked mostly for a local newspaper for 20 years, and as it turned out, for the wrong one.

I founded the stattzeitung.org on 2.2.2022 in the protests against a false pandemic, wrong measures and a wrong "vaccine". We are an online newspaper, the first and only free press on Lake Constance. In stattzeitung.org you will find about 150 articles and reports, they deal with everything that moves us. The brand essence of my newspaper is the local reference. This makes our topics comprehensible - and we can research everything ourselves. Reading is now done everywhere, because it looks the same everywhere. With stattzeitung.org there is no subscription and no paywall, our information is freely accessible to everyone. We are financed by voluntary supporters.

I came here to Vienna today to network even better, to tell you about us, to promote us - and to get to know all the great people who are here!

Stop the delusion of justification!

Three days ago at a lecture by Daniele Ganser that we organized, 30 "grandmas against the right" faced a total of 850 people, who had come from far away to hear why war has broken out in Ukraine. Desert insults of the "grandmas" against Danieles were replaced with the dangerous statement "We stand unconditionally on the side of the people in Ukraine". The demonstrators, who were extremely aggressive in their language, necessitated the presence of the police and, of course, received the full attention of the local press.

I saw them on the other side of the street and had to think of the following momentous film sentence from the 1968 movie "Bullitt" with Steve McQueen!

You can believe what you want. You work on your side of the street and I work on mine!

That's what we do. We work on our side, and the old corrupt media work on their side. I tell you here today: Stop the delusion of justification.

You paint something with a blue color, and you always have to explain it's pink. Do you notice what they are doing with us? All this waste of energy must stop, and we must end it, because they will never do it. It is their weapon that they are turning against us. The arrogance of power is disgusting, but it is also the means of weakening us. Who asks the questioners about their attitude to the Holocaust? Who among us does that? We are supposed to explain ourselves, endlessly assert that we are not what we are not. No, I don't deny the Holocaust, no I don't relativize it... no, no, no - do you notice what's going on?

When I am finally done with my explanations, justifications and possibly even apologies, I have no strength at all to say what I am actually about. How is a person who has to say no thirty times- and then say yes, that's what I stand for? This is a psychologically very skilful train, because I automatically always have to get on the track of the other. I have to undress in front of them bit by bit. First the jacket, then the pants, the shirt and at some point I stand there naked, in front of the other in the suit. How does that feel? Where do I have sovereignty and strength? Small new media like the stattzeitung.org don't need the big money to work well, that makes us sovereign, that makes us strong!

The worst thing that can happen to a medium is when it no longer receives attention. They are afraid of that. All of us here and the people out there in front of the computers, they will never believe the supposedly so serious media again. Because they lied to us and cheated on us, they carried their skin to the market and betrayed and sold us. But they have also sold their soul with it. Every single one of them has sold his soul. You're done. And if they're honest, they know that too. And we didn't do that, they did it themselves. I no longer have any expectations of them, or do I expect me to be able to change them. I don't ask them for anything - and I don't care what they believe! We are now here to replace them. We are practically the eco-carrot, and they are the sausage from the mass pig breeding. Do you remember how organic started? You are what you eat - this also applies to media consumption, so check what you let into your pear, into your brain. We are now on hand to reassert Article 5 of the Basic Law "Freedom of Expression and freedom of the press". Do you notice what a tremendous responsibility rests on us?

We experience almost constantly what game they play with us. How they lie, how they rush. Daniele Ganser's lecture was pre-condemned with a whole page of the worst framings in the daily press. The first of only three questions from the local Journalist to Ganser was: "You are called a conspiracy theorist, is that true?" Imagine a question to this editor, they are called newspaper smears by the lying press, is that true. Of course, Daniele Ganser was not asked questions about the content of his lecture by the local newspaper. It's never about content, because they have no arguments, it's about putting us down. Anyway, with 850 guests in two sold-out lectures directly after each other, this was the largest event the small town at the Lake of Constance has ever experienced. What a success!

They pour their buckets with crap on our heads out of the morally impeccable journalists. Think of the unfortunate doctor and vehement "vaccine advocate" Lisa-Maria Kellermayr from Austria, who chose suicide - an angry hate mob had rushed her to death commented the local newspaper on Lake Constance, of course without research. Journalism? Public relations! The mortuary refrigerator with the open doors, an Advent calendar for the unvaccinated, which a "vaccination doctor" put on the net before Christmas with us on Lake Constance, remained of course uncommented by these self-declared do-gooders. Vera Sharav, I saw and heard her in Nuremberg, what a terrible mistake was made in her! At the front again the media, very bad those from Nuremberg. Freedom of expression and freedom of the press?

But what happened, we all, together with Vera, brought the "code" into the public eye. It was worth it!

So let's not let them force us to defame us, let's not let them continue to dismantle us. They are the dark night and we are the dawn of a new dawning day into which we go together. Let us give each other strength, let us be each other's staff and shield. Let us leave aside our ambition that leads to the competition for the eyeballs, our task is too powerful for us to lose ourselves in it. We have to focus now, concentrate. Too much is at stake. The people out there trust us and they believe in us, this is the highest starting capital we could wish for!

We do the same thing with stattzeitung.org as you do. We give their voice back to the people who silenced them. I want to give them back their voice so that nothing is lost. I want to enlighten so that no one can say he did not know about the side effects of the "corona gene vaccination" and everything else. What people do with it, however, is their own business. I don't want to patronize anyone– and I no longer want to be patronized by depraved politicians and immoral doctors. I want to document so that no doctor gets away with his "Advent calendar" and everything else unscathed. And, I don't want to make a murder pit out of my heart - and still be able to look my seven-year-old godson Max in the eye in ten years. These are my four reasons and I am sure most of the courageous and courageous people who have come here to Vienna today tick as I do.

So let's do well. We are the better the new media. Many of us have already lost a lot - because we have not stuck our price tag to our truth and convictions, we may lose a lot - but what we have gained or never given up is our freedom. This freedom does not exist to 70 percent.

I am proud and honored to be here today and to meet the people whose knowledge and truths I have written 150 articles in the last six months. I am touched by your courage and decency. And I'm very excited to know you all on the computers, all over the world. The first major conference of the media that are better and that have embarked on a new and better path. With statt zeitung.org, we are part of it. Thank God! I could never forgive myself for not belonging to you!

So let's all hang the lamp higher together and our power and our beautiful and good intentions will change the world. Absolutely. It has begun. And we are part of it.
